WHAT DID WE PUT IT IN?
100% Neutral French Oak

WHERE DOES IT COME FROM?
Waliser and Old Stones (Estate Vineyard)

EDUCATION TIME:
Both of these vineyards are in the Rocks. The Rocks is an area in the Oregon section of the Walla Walla Valley appellation (the legally defined and protected geographical indication used to identify where the grapes for a wine were grown).* So the Rocks is the fond nickname for the ancient dried river beds, consisting of cobble stones the size of baseballs, where vineyards are planted. This geographic sensation allows for deep root growth because of the excellent drainage and retention of heat, creating funky, terroir-driven wines (terroir comes from the word terre or land – it was originally a French term in wine, coffee and tea used to denote the special characteristics that the geography, geology and climate bestowed upon particular varieties).* All the hip wineries source from this area.

HOW DOES IT SMELL AND TASTE?
In classic Bordeaux style, there are strong herb components, with leafy and gamey notes. Even a hint of coffee. Also some sweet raspberry jam. Overall, a restrained wine. Now it's your turn to do some research – what is a restrained wine? So, NO curve balls here - this wine is varietally correct in the truest traditional form and the most quintessential Substance wine to date.

WHAT DO I EAT THIS WITH?
Anything roasted. For carnivores, lamb and pork. For you veg heads, stick to hearty, starchy veggies you can roast, like turnips.
